

119

MINISTRIES

"The following is a direct script of a teaching that is intended to be presented via video, incorporating relevant text, slides, media, and graphics to assist in illustration, thus facilitating the presentation of the material. In some places, this may cause the written material to not flow or sound rather awkward in some places. In addition, there may be grammatical errors that are often not acceptable in literary work. We encourage the viewing of the video teachings to complement the written teaching you see below."

Micah's Prophecy and the Millennium

On screen only

The Micah reveals a profound prophecy of the coming Millennium:

Micah 4:2

Many nations will come and say, 'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD [YHWH], to the house of the God of Jacob, that He may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths.' For out of Zion shall go forth the law [the Torah], and the word of the LORD [YHWH] from Jerusalem.

For a thousand years, the Law (the Torah) will go forth from our Messiah, reigning supreme and guiding the nations in righteousness, as a light to the nations (Isaiah 51:4); Yet, many in Christianity today view the Torah as a burden or bondage, often misunderstanding verses like Galatians 5:1. But this begs the question:

If the Torah is "bondage" now, how could it reign during the Millennium as the law of freedom and righteousness?

Perhaps the problem lies not in the Torah itself, but in our perspective. Scripture paints a very different picture of God's commandments:

The Torah is love.

"For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome." (1 John 5:3)

The Torah is perfect.

"The law of the LORD [YHWH] is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the LORD [YHWH] is sure, making wise the simple." (Psalm 19:7)

The Torah is liberty.

And I will walk at liberty, for I seek your precepts. (Psalm 119:45, NKJV)

The Torah is perfect liberty.

"But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing." (James 1:25)

This vision of the Millennium calls us to reevaluate our relationship with the Word of God today.

As God's people, what have we missed about God's Torah? As God's people, what should we do about it?

Shouldn't we embrace his eternal instructions, not just as hearers but as doers?

Joshua 24:15

But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD [YHWH].

Let us no longer see the Torah as bondage but as the perfect guidance of a loving Father, preparing us for his Kingdom reign.

This Messianic prophecy of Micah invites us to reflect on the beauty, freedom, and love found in God's Torah. If the Torah will guide all nations during the Millennium, how much more should it guide our lives today? It is not a burden but a lamp to our feet and a light to our path (Psalm 119:105).

If this teaching has stirred your heart or challenged your understanding, we encourage you to explore more resources from 119 Ministries. Visit our website at 119Ministries.com to access a wide array of teachings that delve deeply into Scripture from a pro-Torah perspective.

You can also join us on YouTube, where we regularly post videos unpacking biblical truths and helping believers grow in their walk with Messiah Yeshua. Don't forget to subscribe and share with others who are seeking the truth of God's Word.

Remember, as always, remember to test everything. Shalom!

EMAIL: Info@119ministries.com

FACEBOOK: www.facebook.com/119Ministries

WEBSITE: www.TestEverything.net & www.ExaminatoTodo.net

TWITTER: www.twitter.com/119Ministries#